Poker is Back at Jumer's Casino & Hotel

ROCK ISLAND, Ill. (July 7, 2021) – Jumer's Casino & Hotel will reopen its Poker Room as the award-winning regional gaming and entertainment destination continues to restore guest amenities as COVID-19 conditions continue to improve in the region.

Jumer's Poker Room is set to reopen on Wednesday, July 14, and will be open from 4 p.m. to 12 a.m. Wednesday through Sunday.

"Many of our guests have been anticipating the reopening of the Poker Room because it's an exclusive gaming experience in the Quad Cities," said Travis Hankins, General Manager of Jumer's Casino & Hotel. "We look forward to welcoming back our guests and additional team members."

About Jumer's Casino & Hotel

Jumer's Casino & Hotel in Rock Island, Ill., is a leading gaming destination in the Quad Cities region of the Midwest, featuring a wide array of entertainment and resort amenities. Jumer's features more than 850 slots and 19 table games, as well as a live poker room, high-limit slot area and a VIP lounge. Amenities include a 205-room hotel with an indoor pool and fitness center, events center with meeting rooms for up to 500 people, four restaurants, a sports bar, aqua driving range and lakeside fire pit. Jumer's began operation in 1992 in downtown Rock Island as one of the first riverboat casino operations in Illinois. In 2008, Jumer's constructed a new casino/hotel complex at the intersection of I-280 and Highway 92. For more information visit www.jumerscasinohotel.com.
